Dear Mrs. Ryan,

As of today I resign as a participating volunteer of the Atlanta Area Council, B.S.A. I have had a good long working relationship with the Council - of which I've really enjoyed. At this time, however, I feel that it is best that I take the time to pursue other areas within the community, with which to devote some of my time and energies.

I would like to thank you and the Atlanta Area Council for the many opportunities we had to be of service.

Again thanks!

Sincerely,
Arthur A. Williams, Jr.

RE: Arthur Williams

On April 24, 1984, Jerry Bowman, Director of Field Service, Atlanta Area Council, shared with me notes of a phone call from the Scout Executive of St. Louis, Missouri (Bob Meinholtz) concerning Arthur Williams.

Jerry asked me to follow up with the names of the people that Mr. Meinholtz had given him:

The names were:

1. [REDACTED] Youth Minister, at Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church [REDACTED]
2. [REDACTED], Cross Lutheran Church, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, [REDACTED]
3. [REDACTED], Atonement Lutheran Church, Atlanta Georgia [REDACTED].

On April 24, 1984, I talked with Pastor [REDACTED] about Arthur and the problems he had. Pastor [REDACTED] knew about these problems. Stated he would write a letter concerning the problem but a better source would be Pastor [REDACTED] of the Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church in St. Louis, Missouri. On April 26, 1984, I called Rev. [REDACTED]. She talked about the problem with Arthur, indicated she would send me written statements to support the charges being made about Arthur Williams.

On May 14, 1984, I called Pastor [REDACTED] about the statements she was to send me. She indicated she had lost my address but the statements would be mailed the 14th of May, 1984.

I have talked with Rev. [REDACTED] of the Atonement Lutheran Church several times about the problem with Arthur. He has spoken with Arthur and talked with Arthur's mother.

On April 28, 1984, Arthur sent a letter to Mr. Walter Ryan resigning from Scouting in the Atlanta Area Council. He also returned contracts unsigned. (He had applied for a job as Camp Chaplain for 1984 at Bert Adams Scout Camp.)

At this time I have followed up as much as possible. Without statements of the incidents from St. Louis, Mo., there is nothing more to do.

Dear Mr. Cannon:

I'm pleased to document our conversation concerning Arthur Cornelius Williams.

Arthur was called back to St. Louis in December of 1982 from his seminary internship in Milwaukee by Christ Seminary--SemineX to discuss charges of child molestation. The foster mother of one of our boys (who was 16 at the time, mildly retarded and a little younger in emotional/mental age than other 16 year olds) had intercepted a letter from Arthur in which he referred to something about which the boy should not be mad but rather, "be grateful for a new experience." She had brought the letter to me; I had contacted the child-abuse hotline but they were unable to handle the call since Arthur was not considered a "caretaker" of the boy; I then contacted the seminary: after the mother confronted the boy, he described the molestation:

Arthur had - in May of that year - intercepted the boy as he arrived for junior choir practice and had insisted that the boy come with him instead to the parsonage next door. (Arthur lived on the third floor of the parsonage in exchange for youth work in the congregation; I was out of town that weekend on a 4H camping trip.) The boy was unwilling but Arthur grabbed him and insisted he come with him. Once in the parsonage, he had the boy wait downstairs in the living room while he went upstairs; when Arthur returned he was naked below the waist and then approached the boy sexually; the boy didn't tell me and I didn't ask him if the encounter involved penetration or not.

The conclusion of Arthur's discussion with seminary officials was a meeting held in my parsonage living room with Arthur, the molested boy, his foster mother, and seminary officials. Arthur confessed to and apologized for molesting the boy. He stated that he had never done anything like that before and did not know what had overcome him.

The seminary was willing to buy that; the child's social worker apparently did not wish to press charges on his behalf.

(to J.C. Cannon, p.2 of 2)

Arthur returned briefly to Milwaukee and met with the council of the congregation there; it was mutually decided that he resign - I believe --- and he left soon after for Atlanta. Pastor [redacted] of Cross Church in Milwaukee will have given you the details of what happened at that end.

I found out the following summer from members of that congregation that after Arthur had left, several boys told of molestation by Arthur. During the fall and winter I worked with Pastor [redacted] and he with Pastor [redacted] of Atonement Lutheran Church in Atlanta...so that we could in concert inform the Big Brothers and the Boy Scouts of Arthur's behavior.

As you know I'm sure, the pattern of child abuse by an adult is a tough one to change. As far as we know, Arthur has done nothing to get any kind of treatment nor has he kept away from scouting or other opportunities to have contact with and responsibility for young boys. This kind of crime is hard to root out, too, because the children who are the victims so often feel guilty and dirty and because they seem to know that a lot of the anger their confession will stir up will unfortunately land on them, even though they are the victims.

I want you to know that Arthur was well received in our congregation: we are an integrated congregation in a Black neighborhood, and the sight of a Black man preparing for the Lutheran ministry was a sight for sore eyes! Although he was perceived as socially awkward by the congregation, they were willing to include him in congregational life. During the spring of the year Arthur lived in the third floor of the parsonage, my housemate (another woman pastor) and I came to see Arthur as a person with a secret. We considered but found no evidence for alcohol or other addiction as the nature of that secret; I'm sorry to say that we never considered the possibility of aberrant or criminal sexual behavior. I shudder to think that I encouraged and arranged for his fieldwork in my congregation.

Thank you for following through with this information. It is good to know that your organization will keep track of this individual and keep him from the opportunity to molest yet more boys via scouting.

Cordially,

[redacted signature]

Dear Archie:

Regarding our conversation of last week, I'm putting in writing the information that I have gained regarding Arthur Cornelius Williams of Atlanta, Georgia.

I received a call on Good Friday morning from [REDACTED], the Youth Director of Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church in St. Louis. [REDACTED] Ms. [REDACTED] informed us that in 1981 and 1982, Arthur Cornelius Williams worked in their congregation as a seminarian for the Lutheran Church. During this time he was active and worked with the Scout troop at the Church. Arthur Williams left Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church in 1982 and went to Cross Lutheran Church in Milwaukee. Pastor [REDACTED]. Arthur Williams continued to work as a seminarian in this congregation and also worked in the Scout troop where Pastor [REDACTED] indicated he sexually molested boys within the unit. Pastor [REDACTED] was counseling Arthur Williams when he left and went to Atonement Lutheran Church in Atlanta, Georgia, which was his home congregation. Pastor [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] indicated to us that the three of them: Ms. [REDACTED] Pastor [REDACTED] and Pastor [REDACTED] had a conference call the morning of Good Friday to discuss the situation about Arthur Williams that they had ascertained, after talking to parents, that he had molested children in Scout units in the churches. They informed me that Mr. Williams is no longer a seminarian and upon returning to Atlanta, left Atonement Lutheran Church and joined Allen Temple AME Church which was his mother's church and is currently active in Scouting there.
