Dear Howard:

I would like to have you check your files for anything you may have on a Mr. C. Fred Feindt.

He says he was a Scoutmaster in Royal Oak, Michigan, sometime around 1955 to 1960. He is now living at 724 Medford Street in Rockford.

This man insists on taking boys for rides in his fancy automobile and entertaining them with stories about his experiences in Scouting. However, he has refused to register as a Scouter.

I would like to know if we have any information on him.

Sincerely yours,

Blackhawk Area Council, Inc.

Re: C. Fred Feindt

ATTENTION: Wayne K. Sampson

Dear Reiny:

In response to your letter of June 25 regarding information on one C. Fred Feindt, we have checked our files and find that we have had him listed with us since October 1962.

If an application for registration was submitted on his behalf, we would most certainly have to refuse to accept it.

It is our recommendation that he not be allowed to associate with boys and/or the Scouting program.

Sincerely yours,
PERSONNEL DIVISION

Director of Registration
