RE JAMES E. KEHELEY -

The following events happened during November and December of 1985: One encounter happened at Jim Keheley's great aunt's house. Jim had [redacted] come to a supposed party, where he offered [redacted] a drink (alcoholic beverage) and also wanted to show [redacted] pornographic movies.

The last time Jim had any contact with [redacted] was when he came to [redacted] house and was asked to leave by [redacted] step-father, which he did leave. He then came back unknown and uninvited to [redacted] house. [redacted] bedroom was in a single-wide trailer parked behind their home. Jim proceeded to make advances toward [redacted]. He got into [redacted] bed and touched and caressed him in a sexual manner on [redacted] upper leg and buttocks. [redacted] then made Jim leave.

[redacted] then told his parents about what had happened, and they notified the Scout Office. [redacted] and family knew of Jim Keheley's employment application with the B.S.A. After two interviews with [redacted] and his parents, plus advice from Western Region, Marty Latimer (Scout Executive) confronted Jim, and Jim withdrew his application for employment with the Ore-Ida Council.

DAVID K. PARK

Mr. David K. Park
National Office Legal Council
Boy Scouts of America
1325 Walnut Hill Lane
Irving, Texas 75038-3096

Dear Mr. Park:

It is with deep regret that I must submit this grievance and petition for your consideration and opinion.

To preface: in eight years of employment history with the BSA, I have always been blessed with honest, open and sincere reciprocal rapport with all professional associates and superiors, that is, until I began associations with Mr. Wayne Taylor, Assistant SC Region Personnel Director, at the advent of having been granted in-transition status this past July, 1987. I requested transition status that I might voluntarily admit myself into resident hospitalization alcoholism treatment. After submitting verification of successful treatment to Mr. Taylor, I would contact him 2-3 times monthly by telephone for a reemployment opportunities update to which he would consistently profess to be representing my best interests however there were no DE openings according to Mr. Taylor, not even entry level and not even nationwide.

Then in December Mr. Taylor denied my reemployment eligibility. I appealed by telephone, in writing, and in person at his SC Region office (with Mr. Benny High, SC Area III representative present). On all occasions he has adamantly refused to state why he has coured his decision to renege. He did refer me to further appeal to Mr. J.L. Grady, National Director of Personnel. I have just received word from Mr. Grady that he thinks it best I pursue employment in other areas.

Mr. Park, would you forfeit your career after eight years on the advice of strangers with no reasons given? I think not and add it is not my decision to do so.

I think it is very possible that this whole situation has arisen out of a simple misunderstanding and possibly someone's propensity to prejudice and/or presume conclusions. I have on four occasions now been denied any detail of "why". Without charges or allegations I can neither enlighten or defend, which is very frustrating.

I fear no reprisals against either my job performance or moral character. I am a producer, upright, and respected as such. If there is some question that the SC Region or National personnel have, why is it kept from me and do they not want to hear my testimony?

I have been courteous, compliant, and civil in my efforts to continue with a normal career and life. However, Mr. Park, I feel I have been treated with callousness, impropriety, and injustice.

Please consider this petition as follows:

- A. I protest the misrepresentation of employment opportunities as presented to me from August through December of 1987.
- B. I protest that a decision was made to terminate my reemployment eligibility without opportunity for any input on my behalf.
- C. I protest the repeated refusals to respond to my requests for a statement of detail as to why said decision was coursed.

THEREFORE: I APPEAL the decision of the Assistant Regional Director of Personnel of the South Central Region to terminate my reemployment eligibility.

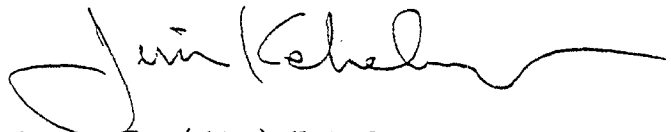

I respectfully request:

- A. Reversal of said decision and considerate reemployment assistance, or
- B. An impartial tribunal hearing and determination, or
- C. Compensation for the consequences of this career interruption and possible termination.

Mr. Park, I hope that this situation can be resolved informally and without further escalation. I don't have legal council; wish not to intimidate, but also, I don't want to be intimidated or railroaded into a life/career alteration based on someones misinterpretations, or ignorance or prejudice or self-righteousness or whatever the unknown quantity is.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter. I sincerely will pursue the issues and would appreciate any advice you or your office can provide as to due process and form in this concern.

Very cordially yours.

Dear Mr. Taylor,

I am distraught and confused that you have chosen to terminate my in-transition status and deny my consideration for re-employment. I have for these many months planned and looked forward to accepting any bonafide career opportunity that you may have presented.

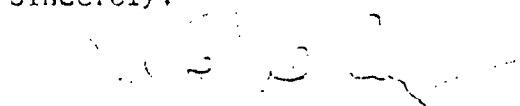

I am in receipt of your letter of 12/15/87 and as per our telephone conversation of 12/21/87 my best understanding is that you have based your decision on a single correspondence sent to you recently from the Ore-Ida Council. I have enclosed my most recent and pertinent correspondence from said council for your examination and respectfully request that you reciprocate in kind.

As is referenced by the enclosed letter, I met with Marty Latimer on 11/24/85 to discuss employment. All manner of details of that meeting and of the conditions of my personal family situation that led to the meeting were presented to Lynn Austin, a national corporation personnel representative. Subsequently, Mr. Austin recommended that I seek re-employment elsewhere and, in fact, aided my efforts to seek interview with the Great Salt Plains Council. I add, that for personal reasons involving my family I did not choose to enforce the employment contract with Ore-Ida Council in 1985 nor do I desire to seek employment in that area at the present time.

As I seek employment now, as then, and as there has been no issue arisen of those 1985 circumstances as known to Marty and Lynn et al., I regret that you may have coured your decision prior to ascertaining all of the available and relevent facts.

I therefore request the opportunity to make appeal. Please advise as soon as possible as to due process and form in this concern. Your considerations and confidentiality is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

James E. Keheley
