RE: James Patrick Rix

Dear Paul:

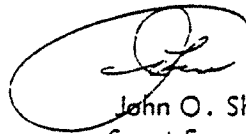

I am sorry for our delay in answering your letter of May 29, 1973. We have been trying to secure written substantiating information that will support you in placing this man on the Confidential File. We have been unable to secure this. However, our verbal report has come from a detective employed by the City of Cleveland who has taken the information from records. This detective is registered with the Council.

Mr. Rix was registered with us until May of this year. We have refused to accept his registration as he is still holding $80.00 that is due the Council from a district activity while he served as a Roundtable Commissioner.

I hope this is enough information for you and your records.

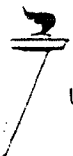

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

John O. Shanks
 Scout Executive
