Dear Tom:

Thank you so much for sending us the Confidential Record Sheet. This certainly aids in our identification process. We would like a copy of an application or other paper with his signature if you have this available.

I really would feel much better about this file if we had something in our file, such as newspaper clippings or court records. If neither you or I were on our present job and someone is reviewing this case five years from now, we really have very little information in our file to substantiate our refusal except for your statements and mine. Do you suppose you could secure some newspaper clippings or court records which would help to substantiate this case?

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

CONF020293

Man pleads guilty to two sex charges in Common Pleas Court

By Ron Craig
Sentinel Staff Writer

John E. Meagley, Jr. of Kalida, pled guilty Friday in the Putnam County Common Pleas Court to one charge of gross sexual imposition of a boy under 13 years old, and one charge of attempting to compel prostitution of a boy under 16 years of age. It was not immediately discernable whether the charges involved the same boy or not.

The charges on file indicate that Meagley allegedly "had sexual conduct with another, not the spouse of the offender, to wit: John Doe, who was less than 13 years of age." This offense purportedly happened in June of 1986.

The second charge of attempting to compel prostitution stemmed from an incident that reportedly occurred in November of last year. The charge reads, "On or about November of 1987, (Meagley) induced a (John Doe) minor under 16 years of age to engage in sexual activity for hire."

The investigation into the matter, conducted by the Putnam County Sheriff's Department and the Putnam County Department of Human Services, culminated in Meagley being charged last Friday. He pled guilty to a Bill of Information in front of Common Pleas Court Judge Randall L. Basinger that same day after waiving his right to a grand jury indictment.

A pre-sentence investigation was ordered by Judge Basinger, and Meagley is being held in the Putnam County Jail without bond while he awaits sentencing. In most cases, a pre-sentence investigation takes four to six weeks to complete, although that could vary, Assistant Putnam County Prosecutor Bruce B. Bohrer told the Sentinel.

Gross sexual imposition is a third degree felony and carries a possible imprisonment time of two years, while the attempting to compel prostitution charge is a fourth degree felony, and carries a maximum of 18 months in prison. If Meagley is given the maximum terms for each charge, and they are ordered to run consecutively, Meagley could face three and one-half years in prison.

No plea negotiations were held in the case, Bohrer said.

In other Common Pleas Court news, Robert Speck, also known as Gypsy Speck, of Defiance, was indicted last Thursday for carrying or using a firearm while under disability. The charge stems from an incident in Putnam County in which Speck was found to have a gun while he is under indictment in Defiance County for drug trafficking. Speck is being held in the Putnam County Jail in lieu of $10,000 cash bond on the weapons charge.

Three divorce cases were filed with the Common Pleas Court recently. James R. Richey, Ottawa, has filed for divorce from Eileen S. Richey, Edinborough, Scotland. The two were married June 15, 1963, and have no children from the marriage.

Michael A. Bonnell, Columbus Grove, has filed for divorce from his wife, Arleen Bonnell of Kissimmee, FL. The two were wed April 15, 1984, and have two children from the marriage.

The third divorce action was taken by Bobby J. Jordan, Continental, against Barbara L. Jordan of Continental. The marriage was performed on October 6, 1973, and three children were born from the marriage.

Miller City woman injured in incident involving train

An 18 year old Miller City woman is listed in fair condition today in the Medical College of Ohio with injuries she received following an incident involving a train Saturday evening.

According to a report on file with the Putnam County Sheriff's Department, Jennifer Schroeder and a friend were near a stopped train on Route 108 in Miller City when the train began to move. The friend ran, thinking Schroeder was right behind her, but the train had hit Schroeder.

Schroeder was taken to St. Rita's Medical Center in Lima by Continental EMS with crush-type injuries to both feet. She was later transferred to Medical College of Ohio by ground transport, where she was treated by orthopedic specialists.

SUBJECT: John E. Maegly, Jr.

Dear Tom:

We received a telephone call from you in January concerning the above named individual. We have not had any information since that time.

We would like to have a Confidential Record Sheet completed which will enable us to identify Mr. Maegly. A copy of an application or document with his signature would also aid in the identification process.

If any legal action is taking place, newspaper clippings or court records are most helpful in completing our file.

Thanks for your help in protecting the youth of America.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director
