Dear Jack:

Thanks so much for your newspaper clipping, letter, letter of suspension, and other information concerning this individual. This will help us to start a file which will led to refusal of future registration attempts.

We will look forward to hearing from you with the Confidential Record Sheet which will aid us in the identification of Mr. Maniscalco. We would, also, like to have the outcome of the legal action once it has been completed. This would then give us all the information necessary in maintaining a file and refusing registration anywhere in the country.

Sincerely,

Dear Jack:

Periodically, I follow up on all of our Confidential File cases, so that we may complete them and have a file that will enable us to refuse registration.

I am enclosing another Confidential Record Sheet which I would like to have completed to the best of your ability. I hope you have been able to get some information from the individuals who know him.

The only other information we will need is the final outcome of the legal action. This would then give us a complete file.

Thanks for your help.

The enclosed newspaper article appeared in Newsday on Friday, October 21. It will update you on the situation that we have with Gerald Alletto who we have previously reported. It will also have you add Leonard ~~Mansicalco~~ to your suspended list.

Maniscalco

Since we could not personally meet with Mr. Maniscalco, a copy of our letter to him with a signed returned receipt acknowledging his receiving the letter is enclosed. We have talked to our Council attorney and of course the letter was sent by our Council President. I will send to you at a later date the confidential record sheet once we have secured more information.

Maniscalco was not known by many committee members of the police post. We have asked Dick Feeley from the Police Department to try and help us fill in the gaps on required information based on information that could be on file with the Suffolk County Police Department.

Sincerely,

John A. Brown

Pleas in Scout Sex Case

own custody.

The indictment, in part, accuses both men of incidents of "deviate sexual behavior" involving two different teenagers in August, 1986, and April, 1987. In the indictment, Alletto is charged with one count of second-degree sodomy, three counts of third-degree sodomy and one count of sexual abuse. Maniscalco is charged with one count of second-degree sodomy, three counts of third-degree sodomy, one count of third-degree sexual abuse and one count of endangering the welfare of a child.

Thirteen of Alletto's 16 years as a Suffolk police officer were as coordinator of the First Precinct's Explorer Scout Post. Maniscalco is listed as a registered scout leader, according to the Suffolk County Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

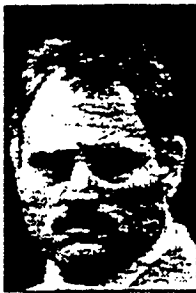

Alletto resigned from the department in June. His attorney, P. Kevin Brosnahan, said he did not know what the relationship was between the two men. Maniscalco's attorney, Philip Murphy, could not be reached for comment.

Jack Gibson, general foreman for Newsday's transportation department, said Maniscalco has been on administrative leave for the last seven months. He described Maniscalco as a good employee with no history of disciplinary problems.

2 Plead Innocent In Scout Sex Case

By Don Smith

As a former Suffolk County police officer pleaded innocent yesterday to charges that he sodomized two members of a police-sponsored Boy Scout Explorer Post, it was disclosed that a second man has been indicted on sodomy and sexual abuse charges in the case.

Alletto

Gerald Alletto, 37, of 28 Charter Ave., Dix Hills, a Suffolk officer for 16 years, entered the innocent plea to the charges of sodomy and sex abuse filed by a Suffolk grand jury at arraignment at Suffolk County Court in Riverhead. County Court Judge Harvey Sherman continued Alletto free on the $2,000 bail he had posted in July, when he was arrested on the sex charges.

During the arraignment, it was disclosed that an indictment included charges against Leonard Maniscalco, 26, of [redacted] West Babylon. Maniscalco, a Newsday truck driver, pleaded innocent to sodomy and sex abuse charges before Sherman on Wednesday and was ordered released in his
