PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Howard:

Valley Forge Council wishes to place Michael P. Gallagher on the National Confidential File for reasons of homosexual tendencies. The enclosed letters from parents of two boys involved support our position. The boys involved are members of a mentally retarded unit.

Gallagher is currently registered as Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 346 sponsored by Don Guanella School, Sproul Road in Springfield, Pa. His residence is 222 Canterbury Drive, Broomall, Pa., 19008; age 18 years--religion Catholic--height 5' 10"--weight 180 lbs.--eyes brown--hair black slightly wavy--features full round face with some freckles. He was in training to become a Brother in the Augustinian Order with the Augustinian Monastery at Lansdowne Avenue and Garrett Road, Drexel Hill, Pa. He is now under psychiatric treatment--parents divorced. This matter was reviewed and his removal from the Order was substantiated by Archdiocesan Scout Chaplain, Father Francis Schmidt.

Mr. Herbert Ey

Havertown, Pa. 19083

Dear Mr. Ey,

This letter is in reference to our telephone conversation of November 4th. at which time we reported to you the misconduct of one Mr. Michael Gallagher (who assists at scout meetings and camping trips) with our son, scout [REDACTED] of troop 346.

We submit as per your request the facts of this incident as told us by our son, as well as another incident in the summer encampment at camp Delmar.

On Friday night, Oct. 28th. 1966, our son [REDACTED] spent the night at the apartment of Mr. Gallagher in preparation for an early departure for a week end camping trip to Camp Delmar. At this time our son was approached by Mr. Gallagher and instructed to remove his trousers for a physical examination. Remembering the physical given by a doctor before summer camp, [REDACTED] complied, only to have his organs probed and fondled. A second time that night, [REDACTED] was told to lie down for more examination, and when he resisted, and called out, was silenced forcefully. Mr. Gallagher also made tape recordings of answers to questions like - " What would you do if you were alone with a girl in the woods - would you take off your clothes and hold hands " etc.

On questioning [REDACTED], he further revealed (for the first time) that Mr. Gallagher had done these things to him and to one or two other boys during the summer camping trip to Delmar.

Mrs. [REDACTED] and I deeply appreciate your concern and interest in this matter and regret very much that such an incident should occur during a scouting program. We trust that this situation will be remedied and Mr. Gallagher will be apprehended for his conduct, and prevented from inflicting more serious injury to another child in the future.

Very truly yours,

[REDACTED]

(Mrs.)

Re: Michael P. Gallagher
Ass't. Scoutmaster, Tr. 137

Dear Mr. Seitz:

On your recent Transmittal Report No. 25, you included the Scouter application for Michael P. Gallagher, 127 Med. Disp., APO, Worms, Germany, to serve as Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 137, District 1. We regret to inform you that we cannot accept Mr. Gallagher's application.

When informing Mr. Gallagher about this, simply tell him that the National Council does not wish to accept his registration in the Boy Scouts of America. If Mr. Gallagher should raise any questions as to reason, you might indicate to him that registration in the Boy Scouts of America is a privilege and not a right and that the National Council reserves the prerogative to accept those individuals it feels will best serve the interests of the organization.

We are herewith refunding Mr. Gallagher's registration fee of $1.00. Please delete his name from your records.

Sincerely,

Howard Boyd, Director
