CONFIDENTIAL REPORT - PATRICK GAGNON

At 10:10 A.M. on Thursday, September 22, 1983, I delivered Council President Bill Melville's refusal of registration letter to Patrick Gagnon. This took place at Patrick's place of employment, (a private "special needs" children's busing service) on Warren Street, Roxbury, after I had been unable to contact Gagnon by phone (he had none) or at his residence (he recently has moved from Beacon Street - no forwarding address available.) I was accompanied by Michael Silva, Challenge District Executive, who introduced me to Patrick Gagnon and then remained silent throughout our five minute conversation.

Upon being introduced, I presented President Melville's letter to Patrick, which he read rapidly. He looked puzzled and quickly asked "What's this all about?"

I informed him that registration with the Boy Scouts of America was a privilege, not a right, and that his application for registration was being denied, based on his alleged involvement in two separate incidents, one in Fairfield, Conn. several years ago, the other more recently in South Boston.

Patrick denied any wrongdoing in Fairfield, Conn. He claimed that although he was in the Marines and moved around the Country several times, that he had never lived in Fairfield, Conn. Being unfamiliar with specific details of that occasion, I directed his attention to the South Boston incident, stating that we had received a complaint from the mother of a former Scout from Troop 210.

Gagnon, without using any names, immediately stated that he knew who the woman was and went into a controlled but angry tirade against her for about 3 minutes. He claimed that she is an evil woman who abused and misuses her children. He claimed (1) that she often goes out and locks her children up in the home; (2) that she was trying to get her hands on a trust fund that he had set up for the boy. He mentioned also that this money was set aside because he was the troop's Scout of the Year. He was very unclear as to whether he or the troop had set up this "trust fund" and for what purposes; (3) that he often sent small sums of money ($5.00-$10.00) to the Scout but that his mother had kept it; (4) that the Scout's brother and sister were often cruel, like the time they hid his Pack when he was going camping.

At this time, Gagnon's supervisor came by and told Gagnon that he had a job for Pat "as soon as you're through with these gentlemen". I then told Gagnon that he should cease all involvement in Scouting, both on the District and Troop levels. He claimed that he was no longer active with the troop (two years). I stated that although he wasn't registered with the troop, I knew that he had attended the Spring (1983) Challenge District Camporee with Troop 210. He said that this was true, but he hasn't been active since.

Gagnon claimed that he had done nothing wrong, had been active in Scouting for over 25 years, and wished to remain so.

Confidential Report - Patrick Gagnon (Cont'd)

I suggested that if he felt wrongly accused, that he take the steps outlined in the letter and request a hearing with the Council President. He said that he would probably do that.

Michael and I then thanked him for his time and left.

Throughout the entire episode, Gagnon kept calm and looked genuinely surprised. He did ramble on, make accusations, and not make a lot of sense when talking about the alleged incident in South Boston.

Dear Paul:

Enclosed is a copy of the letter that we were awaiting from Mrs. [REDACTED] concerning her son's alleged involvement with Brother Patrick Gagnon.

I trust, based upon this letter and the record of Gagnon's past activities in Fairfield Conn., that he might quickly be denied registration in our organization.

Please contact me or our Scout Executive Erik Nystrom if any additional information is required.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Nystrom,

I am writing this letter as a formal complaint against Patrick Gagnon who was my son's, [REDACTED], scoutmaster, troop 210, during the year 1981.

It was brought to my attention, by my son, of various incidents that took place during this period. Pornographic materials, magazines and films, were shown, drugs, mescaline and marijuana, alcohol, beer and whiskey, was provided to the children of the troop and there was sexual contact, all by Patrick Gagnon.

My son verified these stories to Detective Walter Derby, of the Boston Police Department and William Beckett, my son's therapist, of the Human Resources Center, Brookline, Mass. Mr. Derby wanted my son to appear in court against Mr Gagnon, but we, Mr. Beckett and myself, did decide that it would not be in [REDACTED] best interest at that time to confront Mr. Gagnon. [REDACTED] withdrew from all scouting activities at that time.

With the help of Mr Bill Beckett, [REDACTED] has been able to accept that it was not his fault that Mr. Gagnon molested him. My son was asked this year by a classmate to rejoin Boy Scouts, although, I was reluctant at first I finally agreed. My son joined Troop 276 out of Adrew Square in South Boston, I had a chance to meet the scoutmaster, Mr. Bob Alexander, satisfied, that my son was in safe company, he planned to go to a camporee at Camp Sayre in Milton. The morning after he left for Sayre I recieved a phone call from him at seven o'clock, he was very upset, he had bumped right into Mr. Gagnon, in fact Mr. Gagnon was chosen to checkout all of the campsites for awards. I then proceeded to call the camp and talked to a Mr. Morley, I explained the situation to him and he recommended that I notify you as to what is going on. Thus far I have to say that everybody has been most helpful and understanding of the problem.

TSBSA007403

DYKES_I_008516

My main concern, as of this moment, is whether or not to pull my son out of all scouting activities. I really am hesitant to do this, because my son has his heart set on being able to work his way up to an eagle scout and eventually some day to be a scoutmaster himself. I am told by his scoutmaster that he has what it takes to reach his goals in scouting. We have decided to wait on the actions of the council concerning the matter of Patrick Gagnon having access to the children.....

After consulting with my son about the situation we now face with Mr. Gagnon, [REDACTED] has decided that if need be he would address anybody, on the situation that transpired between himself and Mr. Gagnon. I hope this will not be a necessity, but if need be please contact me at my home, anytime after three o'clock daily.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Mr. Paul Ernst
Director, Registration Service
National Council, B.S.A.
1325 Walnut Hill Lane
Irving, Texas 75062-1296

Dear Paul,

In response to your confidential inquiry of Patrick Gagnon, 146 Beacon St., Boston, Massachusetts:

1. Patrick Gagnon was registered as Scoutmaster of Troop 210, South Boston from Jan. 1974 thru Dec. 1981. When he originally registered as a multiple here, he claimed current registration status in New York. He also registered as multiple in Pack 210 from time to time. (See Veteran app.)
2. Patrick is single, approximately 47 years old. He listed his age in 1974 as 37, and on one occasion, listed June 1937 as his birth date. He has sparse (on top) sandy-blond hair, blue or grey eyes, is about 5'6" tall and weighs approximately 165-175 lbs. His name would indicate that he may be of Irish decent.
3. Questions asked of three individuals that know Patrick, including the Pastor of the church where he served as SM, failed to reveal whether he had been in the Marine Corps, or had lived or served in Fairfield, Conn. However, the enclosed application for 20-yr. Veteran Award indicates that Patrick was registered in Scouting positions throughout the country in the 1960's and early 1970's, a pattern not uncommon for an individual in the military.
4. On the Veteran's application, Patrick claims to have been Scoutmaster of Troop 161, Bedford, Ma. from Jan 1969 thru Sept. 1971. He makes no reference to serving in Fairfield Connecticut. (approximately 200 miles from Bedford) during 1969. However, I checked with the Registrar of Minuteman Council, Stoneham, Ma. She found no record of a Patrick Gagnon registered anywhere with Troop 161 in Bedford during 1969-71. The Scoutmaster for the three years was a Theodore Sandy. I also checked his registration in the Algonquin Council, Framingham, Ma. and found that he was registered from May 1972 thru November 1973, which contradicts the Veteran application.
5. Patrick Gagnon uses the name Brother Patrick, claiming that he was once in the religious brotherhood, but left. This would lead one to believe that he may be catholic.

Please let me know if further inquiries prove necessary.

Sincerely,

Steve Whitney

Dear Mr. Boyd:

This letter is to advise you that Patrick Gagnon, former Scoutmaster of Troop 197, Fairfield, Connecticut, is charged with possession of pornographic literature and that an investigation of the suspect is presently being conducted.

According to Captain Mastronardi of the Fairfield Police Department, Patrick Gagnon has not been booked pending a complete investigation, however some information on his background is available.

A transcript of the suspects record was forward to Police Headquarters and contained such items as - Dishonorable Discharge from the Marine Corps, numerous incidents while in the Corps involving minors, etc. To quote Captain Mastronardi, "It is in the best interests of Scouting not to permit Mr. Gagnon to in anyway be associated with the movement."

Further information concerning the outcome of this case will be forward to you.
