SUBJECT: William O. Lewis

Dear Paul:

After having pursued the disposition of the trial of William O. Lewis, and learning each month that the case had been continued, I found out today that the case was dismissed. "The prosecutor decided not to press the charges".

Since this was a family matter (the father of the children involved, accused [redacted] of taking indecent liberties), and because the father refused to convince the children to testify against [redacted] [redacted] the case was dismissed.

It would be my opinion that we keep Mr. Lewis on the Confidential File, and if he should attempt to re-enter Scouting as an adult leader, make any changes at that time, if warranted. Hope this is satisfactory with you.

Sincerely,

Dan H. Wheatcroft
Scout Executive

Dear Dan:

I always appreciate all the help you give me when we have problems. The above named individual was charged with sodomy and we have not heard any outcome of this situation. It is very possible it is still in a pending state.

I hope you will tell me if any progress has been made and whether you have any material which will strengthen our file.

Man is charged with sodomy

By The Star's staff

A 54-year-old Excelsior Springs man has been charged with sodomy involving two children.

William O. Lewis, 109 Temple St., was charged Tuesday by Clay County authorities with two felony counts of forcible sodomy involving a 3-year-old girl and a 1 year old boy, authorities said. He was being held today in the Clay County Jail in lieu of $10,000 bond. A preliminary hearing has been set Jan. 25, Clay County officials said.

11. Bill Harman of the Excelsior Springs Police Department said the man is a longtime member of the community. Earl Shumate, a unit commissioner for Boy Scout Troop 309 and Cub Scout Pack 309, said Mr. Lewis is a Cub Scout pack leader in Excelsior Springs. The children involved in the sodomy charges were not part of the scouting group.
